Welcome to your Personal Affairs Record.

This Personal Affairs Record has a three-fold purpose:

- To assist you and your advisors in establishing the best possible estate plan for you and your family;
- To aid your executor in the effective administration of your estate; and
- To provide important information to your family in the event of an emergency or your incapacity.

We encourage you to complete, review and update this booklet yearly, and inform the appropriate individuals of its location.

The information in this document was provided by the Oklahoma United Methodist Foundation, and was prepared by Miller Dollarhide, Lawyers of Oklahoma City.

APPOINTMENTS FOR LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Note for married couples: Generally spouses nominate each other for the various appointments listed below. If you would like to nominate your spouse, please write "spouse" in the first blank under each appointment.

1. Personal Representatives. The will should name a personal representative to probate the estate. (Personal representative is also something referred to as executor or administrator.) Most people name their spouse as primary personal representative, with a child, relative, or friend as alternate.

Personal Representative: _____

Alternate: _____

2nd Alternate: _____

2. Guardian. If you have minor children or an incompetent child, you may express your preference for whom a court should appoint as guardian. The guardian is responsible for the day-to-day care of the child. It may be a good idea to name a person as an alternate guardian in the event your first choice is not appointed by the court or otherwise not able to serve.

Guardian: _____

Alternate: _____

2nd Alternate: _____

3. Testamentary Trustee. You may need a trustee to manage assets for children until they reach an age when you believe they should be capable of managing property on their own. A trustee can keep the children's money invested wisely and use it for their education, support, etc., until the child reaches the age specified for outright distribution of assets to them. The trustee can be a relative, friend, trust company, or other person you trust to manage and distribute assets according to your wishes. The testamentary trustee can be the same person named as the guardian, or it could be a different person or a trust company.

Testamentary Trustee: _____

Alternate: _____

2nd Alternate: _____

4. Age of Distribution. If you do establish a trust to allow a third party to manage assets for beneficiaries, then it is necessary for you to decide when the beneficiaries will be mature enough to manage assets on their own. You may want to give each beneficiary his/her share at the time the beneficiary reaches a particular age. You may consider splitting the distribution, such as one-half at 25 and the balance at age 30. You may use any age or combination of ages that you choose.

APPOINTMENT FOR REVOCABLE TRUST

1. Successor Trustee. If you are creating a revocable trust, you should designate who is to serve as successor trustee. The successor trustee would be responsible for managing assets if you, or in the case of a joint trust, neither you nor your spouse could manage the trust's assets. The successor trustee would distribute assets as directed by the trust agreement after your death, or in a joint trust, after the death of you and your spouse.

Successor Trustee: _____

Alternate: _____

2nd Alternate: _____

APPOINTMENT FOR DURABLE POWERS OF ATTORNEY

1. Health Care Agent. Who should be named to make medical decisions on your behalf, including decisions regarding medical consents, life support issues, and nursing home admission if you were unable to make these decisions yourself? (Typically, the primary agent is the spouse.)

Health Care Agent: _____

Alternate: _____

2nd Alternate: _____

APPOINTMENT FOR ADVANCE DIRECTIVES

1. Durable Power of Attorney for Property. A durable power of attorney for property is a document that appoints an attorney-in-fact to deal with your property in the event you are unable to do so (e.g. you are ill or otherwise not available). The purpose of this document is to have someone in the position to deal legally with your property if you are unable to do so and to avoid the expensive and difficult process of having a court appoint a guardian to manage your affairs. (Typically, the primary attorney-in-fact is the spouse.)
